About McMakin Farms

McMakin Farms is a family-owned tree farm & nursery located in Lyman, SC (Greenville-Spartanburg area). We provide trees to a variety of wholesale clients including landscape architects, landscape installers, general contractors, developers and retail nurseries.

The farm began cultivation in 1999 after John F. McMakin, Jr graduated from Clemson University. John, along with his wife Julie, run the farm today which has over 150 acres in production.

The staff of McMakin Farms is experienced in both the cultivation and care of trees from seedlings to mature trees. Trust us for all of your tree needs and for information on the best selection for the location. We can tag trees according to your instructions, send pictures, and arrange transportation along the East Coast.

McMakin Farms is a member of the South Carolina Nursery and Landscape Association and a member of the North Carolina Nursery and Landscape Association.
